1. Forwarded herewith are two reports prepared by Paul D. Struder on recent developments within the MHBK. The first, concerning General Andras ZAKO's influence on the periodical, Hungaria, was written on the basis of information given Struder by Baron Antal RADVANSZKY. The second, entitled "Crisis in the French Section of the MHBK", was written from information given him by Baron Imre PONGRACZ, Struder's counterpart in Munich. Both reports were written in the first person, and Struder's comments have been included in the text of each. The personalities mentioned have all appeared in previous correspondence throughout the years.

2. It should be noted that we carry Otto von HAPSBURG's liaison officer in Paris under the name of ABDAL rather than ADAI, the spelling Struder uses. It is our belief that the former is correct.
